

University of St. Thomas SSW

The University of St. Thomas' School of Social Work invites applicants for a full-time clinical faculty position to serve as Co-Director of the University's Interprofessional Center for Counseling and Legal Services (IPC) and Director of Social Work Services to begin August 1, 2023. This 12-month position has primary elements of administration, teaching (1 course/year), supervision, and directing clinical service. The IPC Interprofessional Center | University of St. Thomas brings several disciplines together, including psychology, social work, law, and soon, nursing. The IPC aims to advance social justice through service and advocacy with underserved individuals and communities through transformative educational experiences for students. It is a free clinic that provides legal services, consultation, psychological assessment, case management, counseling, and psychotherapy to uninsured or underinsured individuals.

The University of St. Thomas is located in the major metropolitan area of Minneapolis-St. Paul, and is Minnesota's largest private university. Its 9,000 students pursue degrees in a wide range of liberal arts, professional, and graduate programs. The University of St. Thomas embraces diversity, inclusion, and equal opportunity for all. Our convictions of dignity, diversity and personal attention call us to embody and champion a diverse, equitable and inclusive environment. Please follow this link to learn more or apply for this position: Clinical-Faculty-IPC-Director-position-University of St. Thomas